

Background

This code of conduct is a written policy that sets out the expectations of proper behavior for people affiliated with our programs and organization. The code of conduct encourages ethical behavior, accountability and transparency while discouraging or prohibiting unethical behavior, discrimination, breaches of confidentiality, and other undesirable, dangerous, or illegal behavior.

Code of Conduct

Participation in Nine Star Basketball events and camps is subject to the observance of the organization's rules and procedures. The activities outlined below are strictly prohibited. Any participant, volunteer or staff member who violates this Code is subject to discipline, up to and including removal from the program. In some cases, the extent of the law may be applied.

- Abusive language towards a staff member, volunteer or another participant.
- Possession or use of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs on the organization's property or reporting to any program location while under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- Bringing onto the organization's property or program location dangerous or unauthorized materials such as explosives, firearms, weapons or other similar items.
- Discourtesy or rudeness to a fellow participant, staff member or volunteer.
- Verbal, physical or visual harassment of another participant, staff member or volunteer.
- Actual or threatened violence toward any individual or group.
- Conduct endangering the life, safety, health or well-being of others.
- Failure to follow any organization policy or procedure.
- Bullying or taking unfair advantage of any participant, volunteer or staff member.
- Failing to cooperate with a supervisor/leader/mentor.

I have read, and I understand the Code of Conduct. I agree to abide by the rules described above and understand that I may be removed as a participant, volunteer or staff member if I violate any of these rules.
